Fountain Valley resident Peggy Kane has been named the 35th Senate District "Woman of the Year" for her efforts with military service members.

Since 1990, Kane has been corresponding with military members, and she continues to communicate with thousands of members in the military through anysoldier.com and anymarine.com.

She has sent more than 5,000 cards, letters and care packages to people in the military, officials said.

"I believe that Ms. Kane's work is motivated by a desire to show support for the brave men and women in uniform," said state Senator Tom Harman. "She is an extraordinary example of distinction and excellence."
